Filling up of vacant posts arising on account of retirement, death, resignation, creation, etc., in any Institute/Cadre is a continuous process and undertaken in accordance with the requirement.
In order to fill up the vacant posts various steps are taken, from time to time which include conducting of examination by recruitment agency on the basis of the projected vacancies; regular follow up of the matter with recruitment agency; allowing the hospitals to make contractual appointments against the vacant posts as a stop-gap arrangement in public interest so that the patient care does not suffer; holding regular Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) for filling up promotional posts; etc.
So far as AIIMS, New Delhi is concerned, out of 1219 vacant posts of paramedical staff, the appointment letter in respect of 666 newly selected Sister Grade-II have been issued. 91 vacant posts of Assistant Professor/Lecturer in Nursing, 137 posts of OT assistants and 37 posts of security guards have been advertised. Apart from this, the process of recruitment of Senior Residents/Junior Residents has been taken up for July, 2016 session. In addition, scrutiny of result for 41 posts of scientists is in progress.
